BE THE EXCEPTION TO THE RULE: BEYOND THE BASICS OF FEDERAL COURT PRACTICE

2 CLE Credits

Tuesday, October 15, 2019, 10 a.m. – Noon

Norfolk Courthouse, Training Room 1304

Coordinator: Jennifer L. Eaton
Vandeventer Black, LLP

Faculty: Dustin Paul
Vandeventer Black LLP

James R. Theuer
James R. Theuer, PLLC

The purpose of this session is to orient participants to key aspects of civil practice and procedure by using case studies to:

- 1) demonstrate application of a rule in practice and
- 2) show exceptions to the general rule that may govern a particular issue.

The presenters will also cover some "hot topics" and changes to federal court practice in recent years. Some topics include:

- a) unique ways a case may have federal jurisdiction
- b) interlocutory appeals
- c) the interplay between Rules 26(e) and 37(c), and
- d) the evidentiary boundaries of dispositive motions.

To register, complete form and mail with payment to:

NPBA, City of Norfolk Courthouse, 150 St. Paul's Blvd, 2nd Floor, Norfolk, VA 23510
