PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Goodbye, Hello

Jeffrey L. Stredler

As we say goodbye to 2010 and hello to 2011, I would like to take this opportunity to look back at the things we have accomplished this past year and tell you about some of the noteworthy events and programs we have coming your way in 2011.

Despite these challenging economic times, our membership numbers have remained steady. Without question, the biggest surprise has been the success of our season ticket CLE programming. Approximately 50 members have availed themselves of this program, and the feedback we have received from members regarding the quality of the programs has been consistently positive. Dawn Serafine and her committee have worked very hard to provide top quality CLE programs to the legal community at a very reasonable price and we certainly appreciate their efforts.

We have also received positive feedback regarding our luncheon programs. Our speakers thus far, Norfolk Sheriff Bob McCabe, Kerry Dougherty of The Virginian-Pilot, and Virginia State Bar President Irv Blank all provided us with both educational and entertaining commentaries on their respective fields. Dave Lannetti and Don Schultz have continued to work with the Legal Aid Society of Eastern Virginia to finalize procedures for our Norfolk Circuit Court Pro Bono Referral Program.

In 2010, the NPBA once again played a major role in the 4th Annual Statewide Legal Food Frenzy. We raised enough food and funds to provide approximately 433,372 pounds of food for our community. Across the state, legal professionals contributed more than 1.7 million pounds of food (including both food and converted cash donations). B. Cullen Gibson and the law firms Jackson Lewis, McKenry, Dancigers, Dawson & Lake, and McGuire Woods all won first place awards in the statewide competition. The Law Offices of David Greer, Williams Mullen, Vandeventer Black, Kaufman & Canoles, and Willcox & Savage also received special recognition from Attorney General Cuccinelli for their local contributions to the competition.

We were also proud to receive awards from the Virginia State Bar's Conference of Local Bar Associations at the State Bar annual meeting for our Pro Bono Foster Children Training Program, the Ruffner Academy Mentoring Program, and the Pro Bono Outreach Clinic Program. Our Young Lawyers Section certainly helped us make a difference in our community with these successful programs. Speaking of successful programs, Shawn Voyles once again did a tremendous job spearheading our seventh annual Harvest for the Homeless this fall. Our members helped organize the collection of 278 bags of clothes, toys, and other things for those in need at local shelters. Many of you attended the YLS golf outing, the summer social at Kaufman & Canoles, the fall social at the Postons, the Breakfast with the Bench meetings, and other social gatherings organized by the YLS. Wes Simon and his team have devoted a lot of time and energy in putting on these activities and all of them have had fabulous turnouts. The recent holiday party at Willcox & Savage was a great time and put a fitting ending on the year.

As much as we have accomplished in 2010, we have many more activities coming up in 2011. We have several outstanding luncheon speakers scheduled in 2011, such as Dr. Michelle Clayton of CHKD, Norfolk EEOC Director Herb Brown, and our very own Norfolk City Councilman, Andy Protogyrou. The Breakfast with the Bench series resumes on January 19th with Judge Michelle Atkins. The Legal Food Frenzy and the Bench Bar Conference will be held in April. Our Annual Meeting occurs in May, when we will award the NPBA Foundation scholarships, the Walter E. Hoffman Community Service Award, and the Eggleston/T'Anson Professionalism Award.

For those of you who are new members, you can see that we take great pride in providing a large number of educational and social programs for our members and the local community. As we start the new year, I encourage you to join one of our committees, attend the remaining luncheons, participate in our CLE programs and community service activities, and take advantage of the opportunities that we provide to network, support our region, and make some new friends along the way.

Best wishes for a wonderful 2011.

Dr. Michelle Clayton says she has found her niche as a child-abuse pediatrician at the Children's Hospital of the King's Daughters in Norfolk. She describes the work as "a fusion of medicine, law, forensic science and social work. ... I'm blessed doing what I really love every day." She helps injured children talk about being abused and develops clinical evidence of abuse so that they can be protected and the abuser prosecuted. She advises child protective service workers and police on whether the injuries are consistent with an accident or reflect a deliberate injury. She trains forensic nurse examiners on what to look for when sexual assault is suspected and what tests to perform to verify or disprove the suspicion. And she prepares children to testify in cases of physical and sexual abuse and often provides the expert medical testimony in prosecutions of abusers in Hampton Roads.

The 2010 class of Virginia Lawyers Weekly's Influential Women of Virginia recognized those attributes when it selected Clayton as the Influential Woman of the Year.

Dr. Clayton arrived at CHKD for her residency and eager to pursue a general pediatric practice, but she became fascinated with forensic pediatrics. King's Daughters created a fellowship for her so that she could become one of the few board-certified child abuse pediatricians in the state. She joined the King's Daughters staff full-time after completing the fellowship. She is the medical director of the pediatric forensic nurse examiner program there and is also an assistant professor of pediatrics at Eastern Virginia Medical School.

Please call the Bar Office at 622-3152 to register for the January luncheon.

MESSAGE FROM THE YOUNG LAWYERS SECTION

By Wes B. Simon, Chair

Reviewing an entire year's worth of programming from the Young Lawyers Section is a hefty task. Summarizing all of the effort put forth by so many dedicated young lawyers and bar office staff is a job not suited for the limited amount of space I get allotted each issue of the Bar Bulletin. The truth is that there are so many people who work together and offer up their time and energy to organize, create and follow through with the terrific programs we host, to justly recognize everything they do would be a 5 part miniseries. So as we begin the New Year, I will simply have to say thank you to everyone in the Young Lawyers Section for doing everything you do, and I hope you will continue to give your time and passion to our little group.

Moving forward into the New Year means, while reflecting on the past, we must look towards the future; and the future for the Young Lawyers Section is looking bright. We have recently had a growing number of requests from new lawyers who want to get involved, which means a fresh new crop of eager young souls is making itself available to carry on and grow our section. We are always looking for fresh faces to help with old and create new programs for the Young Lawyers Section, so I urge anyone who has associates sitting idly by, or young lawyers who have been debating whether you have the extra time, to come out and join our ranks. There is no time like now to get involved, because the great programs are not over yet.

The next Young Lawyers event will be a Breakfast with the Bench on January 19th at the Brickhouse Diner where the Honorable Michelle J. Atkins, Judge of the Norfolk Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court, will be speaking to us. As we move into the Winter and Spring, the schedule will be filled with great events and opportunities for lawyers both new and seasoned to get active, so keep an eye out for the emails and notices.

On behalf of the Young Lawyers Section, I hope everyone had a safe and happy new year, and look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events.

2011 MIDDLE SCHOOL MOCK TRIAL PROGRAM

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The NPBA Public Relations Committee is looking for volunteers to assist in the Model Judiciary Program for Norfolk Public Schools. The program was started at Blair and Meadowbrook Middle Schools, where students were taught basic trial skills and conducted mock trials in Norfolk Circuit Court. The program has been a great success due to the enthusiasm and hard work of the students and participating attorneys, has garnered state and national attention and has grown to seven middle schools. It is expected that middle schools participating this year will be Azalea, Blair, Lafayette Winona, Lake Taylor, Meadowbrook and Ruffner.

It is scheduled to be an 8-10 week program starting at the end of January. Students will receive instruction one day a week for 60-90 minutes, depending on the school, between 3:00 and 4:30 p.m. Each school fields a plaintiff/prosecutor side and a defense/defendant side. Trials matching one school's team against another's are scheduled in late March or early April in Norfolk Circuit Court.

Previous volunteers have commented on how well the students have performed and on their enjoyment of watching the students' growth throughout the process. The experience of working with the children is very rewarding as they are so appreciative of being able to work with attorneys. If you are interested, please email or call the Bar Office at 622-3152. If you have a preference for a particular school, please let us know. Thanks for your assistance with this worthwhile program.
